"Opening" Tomorrow

Millinery "Opening" for the spring of 1912. Is it half as important as the "Closing" of the February Sale of Furniture? It's all a matter of viewpoint. To relate-French Hats that many women will delight in will be found in the Second Floor Millinery Parlors. On Fourth Floor is Furniture at half price, in some instances. Pictures, too. Why not enjoy both the bats and meeting of your friends at the "Opening" and determine at the "Closing" upon the pieces of furniture required?

"Closing" Tomorrow

The famous February Sale of Furniture is to close with the distribution, at half price, of all hurt pieces and all odd pieces, even if not hurt. $70,000 worth of Furniture for $40,000—this was the claim when this February Sale was first announced. The fact is now recognized and talked of by the chiefs of institutions and great hotels not less than in the homes. That every piece of this furniture will be distributed before February ends is now

$4,000 worth New Pictures for $2,000

Prices, 5c to $1.50

Values, 10c to $3.00

The prices are the only disappointing featuremaking these pictures so difficult to "advertise" in The Times. Even 10c to $3.00 is suspiciously little for pictures-but 5c to $1.50 is simply absurd,

With the photographic camera and the new processes of printing, masterpieces of fabulous value can be reproduced as easily as can daubs.

Thus pictures cannot be judged by the price. The frames for them, produced by machinery, can be as expensive looking as you like, while costing if the reader is not convinced, will be or she cast aside prejudice until a visit has been made to this fourth floor.

New pictures are here—only arrived ve-terday from the greatest firm in the United States, noted for superlatively best taste in making selections and lasting success in distributing them.

As with furniture, so with pictures, February is "clearing time" with wholesalers. It means $4,000 worth of new pictures at $2,000-for its and you.

It means balt price for choice of a variety of pictures so great that one or more can be found to suit every faste.

Ready tomorrow morning-on tourth floor.
